

New players added to the Finder Darts Masters 2017 players field

Three more players have been added to the Finder Darts Masters 2017 player list. These three players qualified through the Champions League of Darts tournament, a special event that allows players of member organisation of the Dutch Darts Bond to play for a place at the Finder Darts Masters.

The Champions League of Darts 2017 has been played and the champions of this year are known after five exciting finals. A total of 5 tournament to qualify for the Finder Darts Masters 2018 (for men, ladies and junior players) plus participation in the Winmau World Masters in Bridlington.

The winner of the girls tournament received a ticket for the Winmau World Masters and the champion of the boys up to 14 wins and VIP package to visit the Finder Darts Masters 2017.

In the men's tournament the final was between Rick Hofstra and Jeffrey Stigter. Rick has a wealth of experience on the World stage, having played Lakeside and the Zuiderduin.

It was an exciting final over the best of 3 sets with Rick winning in two straight sets. In the first set, Rick made the difference in the fifth and final leg to win this set by 3-2. Both sets were closely fought and going to a deciding leg but Rick's experience proved the difference.

The Ladies title was won by Marjolein Noijens. In her final against Aletta Wajer. Marjolein led early on only to see her opponent respond and move to within one leg of victory, but Marjolein bounced back to win 5-4 and book her place in the Finder Darts Masters 2017.

Ramon Leferink will compete in the Finder Darts Masters Youth event this year. He had an amazing comeback after being 4-1 down to Lars Plaisier he won 4 legs in a row to win the Junior title 5-4.

Lerena Rietbergen won the girls event in an exciting final against Kyana Frauenfelder. Kyana missed too many doubles in this match and that proved costly as Lerena eventually won the fifth and final leg to win and achieve a Winmau World Masters spot.

Pim Bijnen can prepare for a very beautiful month December. Pim won the boys up to 14 tournament. He won the final against Sytze Terpstra 3-1 and for this achievement, Pim received a VIP package for the Finder Darts Masters held in Hotel Zuiderduin on 8, 9 and 10 December.

In addition to these prizes, there were also two hotel packages for players and players who did not pass the first round of the tournament or women's tournament. These players were allowed to sign up for a B final.

Nico van Os won the men B final with 3-0 from Kevin Wensink and Anita was in the ladies the best in her match against Larissa Span

On the picture from left to right; Gerard Elderenbosch - Organization Finder Darts Masters, Marjolijn Noijens (Champion Ladies), Tim Oosterbroek, Chairman of the Dutch Darts Bond, Rick Hofstra (Men's Champion), Richard Nan, Organization Finder Darts Masters and Junior Champion Junior Ramon Leferink

More information about all the games played today can be found at www.clod.nl More information about ticket sales or packages deals for the Finder Darts Masters or participants in the Finder Darts Masters 2017 can be found at www.findermasters.nl